It is with deep pride that the Class of 1965 dedicates this yearbook to our vice-principal, math teacher, basketball coach, and friend, Mr. John Herbert.

We who have been fortunate enough to have shared in his math classes have profited from his patient efforts and untiring work.

During his past nine years as basketball coach, his teams won several league championships and a sectional title. Championships and sectional titles are not the only criteria in judging a coach. The boys who have been trained by Mr. Herbert have come away with not only the fundamentals of the game but also the fine traits characteristic of their coach.

To his players, to his students, and to those of us who have just seen him in the halls, he has been a fine example of a man whose personality and character we shall strive to emulate.

It is therefore an honor for us, the Class of 1965, to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. John Herbert.

In Gratitude . . .

We, the Class of '65, would like to express our appreciation to our former guidance counselor and friend, Mr. Merwin Nichols. During junior high and our first three years of high school, he helped us to plan our studies and to solve our problems. We will always be grateful to him for his understanding, interest, and kind advice.

In 1922, Miss Ruth Weir returned to Cambridge, her hometown, to teach. The Class of '65 is grateful to her for the faithful instruction and friendship she has given to us and to those before us. We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks and best wishes for a pleasant retirement to our former teacher, Miss Weir.

Last year Mr. Clarence Coulter resigned from the Board of Education after 25 years of service. During the years he served on the Board, our school was built and later enlarged to its present size. As we bid farewell to Cambridge Central, we wish to express our gratitude to Mr. Coulter for his continued interest and dedication to the educational development of our community.

American Field Service

People in other countries sometimes forget that the American continent has been built by sons and daughters of every continent and every country. Many men try to tell us that peace among nations and neighbors is not possible, that old suspicions and prejudices can never be overcome, that old customs and traditions can never be fixed together, that old rivalries and struggles can never be laid aside. When anyone tells you that, tell him of the United States and Argentina. Your land and my land have much to do together. I am sure we will be leaders in this great work of peace and mutual understanding.

I don't know what impressions you may have about my country, but I want to tell you that I will never forget this year in the United States of America and the hospitable people that I met in Cambridge and Cambridge Central School.

To the Class of '65 -

The decade of the 1960's is challenging us to extraordinary efforts to make good on the promise of education. The population growth, the explosion of knowledge, the advancements in science and technology, the demands of the modern labor market, which are rapidly eliminating job opportunities for the untrained and unskilled, the pressures of the struggle for civil rights, the rising expectations and aspirations of peoples everywhere - these and many other developments of these dynamic years are demanding the expansion and improvement of educational opportunities with an intensity and at a pace never before experienced.

Your education does not - cannot - stop at the end of this year. Wherever you go, whatever you do, KEEP ON LEARNING.

To the largest graduating class in the history of Cambridge Central, the Class of '65, may I offer you congratulations, continuing success, and the following poem?

"One step won't take you very far,
You've got to keep on walking.
One word won't tell folks who you are,
You've got to keep on talking.
One inch won't make you very tall,
You've got to keep on growing.
One deed won't do it all,
You've got to keep on going."

God bless you all.

President's Message

It is with mixed emotions of happiness, sorrow, and doubt that we, the Class of '65, leave C.C.S. But to leave without saying farewell and thanks to our teachers, advisers, and parents would be unthinkable. Our most humble thanks go to the teachers of Cambridge Central, who have given us a more than adequate education to build our future on. To Mr. O'Connor, our faithful adviser and teacher for four long years, we wish to express our sincere gratitude for inspiring us to work diligently, to strive for excellence, and to think and evaluate clearly and logically. Without his efforts, our class would have surely been a quagmire of mediocrity. None of us will ever forget the effort which he put forth to guide us wisely, nor can we ever wholly repay this debt of service which we owe him. Miss Loerch, another devoted adviser and teacher, has also contributed her energies to make our class as successful as it is. Without her talents, our numerous class plays would not have achieved their measure of excellence. To our adviser, Mrs. Lynch, we give our most grateful thanks for a tough job well-done for her assistance in the organizing and perfection of the '65 CHIEFTAIN. Finally, to our parents, we say thanks for the patience and understanding you have shown us during our high school years. The opinions, ideas, beliefs, patience, and understanding of our teachers, advisers, and parents have molded us, hopefully, into good potential U. S. citizens. Our years at C.C.S. have indeed seen us transformed from children to mature, young adults, thanks to the efforts of those near us.

And now, as we leave Cambridge Central, let us keep three things in mind. First, let us remember to think for ourselves, and to evaluate and consider the facts. Second, let us always strive to do our best, to aim for excellence, and to put spirit into whatever we do--the apathetic person always fails. Last, let us maintain a high standard of morals, for without these, the other guides will fail.

As a class, we began as a group of individuals. Throughout our tenure here at Cambridge Central, we have seemed to acquire an intangible bond, a mixture of appreciation of our friends, a pride in the Orange and Black and our class, and a desire to make our class and school something better than average. The memories of the record hops, the "pop quizzes," the Salem games, the good friends, the cafeteria gatherings, and the assemblies will always linger with us. We have each become mature individuals, yes; but at the same time, we have become a unified body. The nostalgia of C.C.S. will always be a part of the members of the Class of '65.

Class History

We entered Cambridge Central in 1952, and in what seemed an eternity then but a moment now, grades kindergarten-eighth sped by. As seniors, it is nice to look back on those elementary and junior high years and remember those wonderful teachers who were so good for us.

In the fall of 1961, we anxiously but somewhat timidly assumed our role as freshmen. New teachers, new subjects, and expanding social activities caused time and timidity to fly. As confident sophomores, we offered to the high school assembly and the PTA two, 1-act plays, "Bobby Sox" and "The Hangin' at Sinimin City." Our second Valentine Dance, "Cupid's 5th Caper", netted over $160 for the Heart Fund.

As juniors we continued in much the same pattern, pausing to order class rings, sell magazines, and rehearse for our junior play, "Gramercy Ghost." It seems that the words "College Boards" made the future more real to us. And so with thousands of others we applied, took our tests, and awaited the results. What's a junior year without a junior prom! "Twilight of the Gods," our theme, was carried out to the fullest.

Not many more days as students of C. C. S. remain. Our last year has been a great one. In place of the customary 3-act play, we offered three 1-act plays. Chela Bosisio, an exchange student from Argentina, joined our class this year; and we have enjoyed her warmth and pleasant ways. With the precedent of a great junior prom, we knew we had to make the senior ball a success and we did. All agreed that "Sylvan Soiree" was as beautiful as the prom.

Our announcements and caps and gowns have been ordered. We anxiously await June 27. Our Memories Dance in May will bring back some happy occasions but will not be able to capsule all the days gone by. These days from 1952-1965 were and will be some of the best days of our lives. We, the Class of 1965, know that in the years to come, we shall often look back and gratefully remember Cambridge Central.

Although the '64 Indians finished fourth with a 3-4 Washington County League mark and 3-5 overall, the Orange and Black played good football throughout the season. With the exception of the Draper and Greenwich games, the Indians were never out of the running but gave every team a tough battle. Highlights of the season included a fine 80-yard kickoff return by Bob Harrington for a touchdown against Ft. Edward, a 50-yard pass interception by Tom Severson against Stillwater, and a great 70-yard punt by Vinnie MacDonald against the Forts.

Mr. Tesar presents
Tim Squiers with the Wright Trophy.

Karl Rogge
receives the Bucket.

Two events were significant of late '64, the first being the Annual Football Banquet. With a large crowd present, the team was congratulated for having improved statistically in every field except penalties. Coach Tesar cited the tremendous record of Bob Harrington, who gained 994 yards of the team's 1450. Mr. Tesar also praised senior Vinnie MacDonald's punting average of 44.1 yards. The highlight of the evening was Tim Squiers receiving the Jerome E. Wright Trophy from Mr. Tesar.

The second event of '64 was the return of the Old Oaken Bucket from Salem. Before an enthusiastic assembly, Student Council President Karl Rogge accepted the coveted trophy from Angelo Tarantino, Karl's counterpart from Salem. Once again, Cambridge's superiority over Salem in sporting events was reaffirmed.

The Little Indians fared somewhat better than did the Varsity, finishing 6-6 in the Washington County League and 7-9 overall. The boys won their share of close games in defeating Granville (39-35) and Schuylerville (57-52). However, the JV's also lost a number of close ballgames, especially to Granville, Greenwich, and Salem.

The starting guards were chosen from Joe Vitello, Ken Gottry, and Bob Woodward. Playing at center and forward positions were Jim Blanchfield, John Langer, Jeff Ashworth, and Steve Nygard. Also giving their best to the team were Terry Granger, Ralph LeBarron, and Jim Langer.

Although the 1964-65 Indian team finished the season with a disappointing record, this Orange and Black squad should never be forgotten for its tremendous spirit, aggressiveness, and all-around hustle. The team was obviously hurt by the loss of seven departing seniors last year. Heart-breaking losses were suffered at the hands of Granville (55-53) and Greenwich (55-54, 72-64). Generally speaking, the Indians played good ball most of the way but always seemed to lapse into the doldrums each game for several minutes. Due to these periods, C. C. S. always seemed to come out on the minus side.

Team leader in total points was co-captain Bob Harrington with 249, followed by Larry Doxsey's 197, and co-captain Tim White's 83. Individual high for most points scored in a single game also went to Harrington with 30 in the game against Hoosic Valley.

The starting five usually consisted of Tim White at center, Larry Doxsey and Bob Harrington at the forward positions, and Karl Rogge and Joe Voerman at the guard slots. In reserve were Charlie Ackley, John Skorupski, Roger Holcomb, Ted Bell, Jerome Sardi, and Tom Severson.

With a large number of returning varsity members, next year's Indians should enjoy a fine season.

The 1964-65 sports season made history in C. C. S. as wrestling was offically introduced as a varsity sport.

A young and promising squad reported to Coach Tesar. Enthusiasm was high as the matmen recorded 8 wins, 4 losses.

Several accomplishments were gained during the season. The Indians finished League competition with a second-place tie. In the Washington County Tournament, they fared well, scoring 4 champions (Bob Stinner, Webb Madison, Lloyd Peters, Bill Watkins) and 6 second-place finishes.

In Section Two competition, the matmen finished third in Class "C" ratings and well up the ladder in overall competition.

Outstanding records were achieved by Larry Hunt (12-4), Bob Stinner (13-3), Webb Madison (11-2), George Ridler (10-3), Lloyd Peters (12-1), and Bill Watkins (14-1).

The '64 season saw the opening of Cambridge Central's new baseball diamond. The new diamond provided added incentive to the Indians in edging out the Forts in extra innings, 11-10. Included among the Orange and Black losses was a tough loss to Hoosic Valley, 4-3, the winning run scoring in the last of the ninth on a disputed call at home. Playing a rugged 12-game schedule, the Indians finished with a 6-6 overall record and a 1-5 record in the Washington County League.

The Junior Varsity completed a fine season, winning 6 and losing 3. The young C. C. S. diamond aspirants edged out victories in close struggles over Schuylerville, Hoosick Falls, and Greenwich. One outstanding game saw the JV's down Salem 28-7.

Out Of The Blocks!

Five Orange and Black records were shattered and one tied, as the Indians finished third in the Washington County League standings with a 4-2 record. Foremost among the new marks established was the 3:56 mile-medley relay by John Hunt, Steve Morse, Darryl Decker, and Frank Ludwick, which erased not only the C. C. S. record but also the previous Washington County League record. A new 880 relay time of 1:38 was set by Bob Harrington, Frank Gates, Steve Morse, and Darryl Decker. Tim White broke the C. C. S. discus record with a heave of 133'7". Ed Hunt put forth a new mark in the two-mile run with a 11:51.5 clocking. The 120 high hurdles record fell by the wayside as John Langer cleared the obstacles in 19.7. Pete Morse tied the 440 mark set by Decker with a 54.6 run. Decker also set a new league record in the low hurdles with a 22.6 showing. The Indians wrapped up a fine season by copping fourth place in the Granville Invitational Meet, gaining a third place tie at the Washington County League Meet, and garnering fifth place in the Class "C" Sectionals.
